PREFACE.

To the citizens of Champaign and Urbana:

We take pleasure in presenting this, our first Directory of your beautiful cities. We have endeavored to make as complete and correct a book as can be done in this kind of work. We leave it to your kind consideration, trusting that an appreciative view may be taken of our work.

In our canvass we endeavored to take a correct census of the two cities, and think that we are not far from the figures when we say that in round numbers Champaign has 8,300 and Urbana 4,500, making a total population of 12,800 for the two cities. According to the last census of Champaign and Urbana, the per cent of gain has been much greater in Urbana than in Champaign, which must be very gratifying to Urbana citizens.

Thanking those who have so willingly and liberally patronized us, and by encouraging and helpful acts aided us, we will close with a wish for unbounded prosperity to them.

We remain, very respectfully,

T. D. CAIRNS & CO.,

The Champaign County News

The LEADING NEWSPAPER

Of Central-Eastern Illinois.

Printers' Ink, the greatest advertisers' paper in the United States, basing its statements upon the figures of the American Newspaper Directory of 1893, says of THE NEWS, in its issue of May 10:

In Champaign County, Illinois, (pop. 42,159), the largest circulation rating is accorded to THE CHAMPAIGN COUNTY NEWS, a weekly published at Champaign, its edition being 3,600 copies, guaranteed by the Directory.

To make the matter yet a little more definite and back up its figures with the solid cash, Printers' Ink said in its issue of May 24:

THE NEWS, Champaign, Ill., shows a record for the past year of 3,600 copies. This is the largest circulation in Champaign county, and is guaranteed by the American Newspaper Directory with a $100 forfeit.

And finally, to clinch it still more thoroughly, Printers' Ink added in its issue of June 7:

THE NEWS, Champaign, Ill., receives advertising conditioned on a larger circulation than any two other papers combined in Champaign county (pop. 42,159.) Its edition is guaranteed by the Directory to be not less than 3,600.

This is no back number but an up-to-date guarantee with a $100 forfeit and a free advertisement if there is any misrepresentation about it.
